RESTORATION REPORT

A 494

PHOTOS

1. The volume before treatment
2. The right-board pastedown and flyleaf

3. Verso of the first leaf
4-5. Iron gall ink corrosion
6. The disbound binding

7. Double holes in the board
8. Piece of the original fastening strap

9. Vestiges of the original endband support and parchment binding
10. The disbound textblock

11. Evidence of disposition of the three original sewing stations
12-13. Different stages of ink corrosion
14-15. Severe losses due to ink corrosion
16-17. The watermarks of the manuscript
18. Preparation of the calcium-phytate bath

19. Aqueous and calcium-phytate treatment of the leaves
20. Before treatment (on the right) and after treatment (on the left)

21. Leaf on the light table
22-23. Reinforcement on recto-verso with Berliner tissue
24. The textblock resewn on three raised hemp cords

25. The rounded spine of the volume
26-27. Preparation of the endbands
28-29. Attachment of the boards and endband supports
30. Case of the former binding (on the left) and slipcase of the volume (on the right)

31. The former binding
32-33. The spine and front edge

34. The edge at head
35. The edge at tail

36. The boards with the fastening straps
37. The right side pastedown with the ex libris

38. Verso of page one
39-40. The restored manuscript
41-42. The reinforced leaves